

July 24, 2023

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this reference letter in strong support of Nilufer Dastan, who is applying for an English course in Language On in Miami (Brickell) as part of her academic pursuits. I have had the privilege of knowing Nilufer for four years during her time as a student at the department of econometrics in Dokuz Eylul University.

As her professor at the university, I have observed that Nilufer's substantial improvement in her English proficiency has created multiple opportunities for her to seek scholarships for her desired Master's program in her field. Her advancements in language skills have undoubtedly enhanced her prospects, positioning her as a competitive candidate for securing scholarships and pursuing further studies at the Master's level in her chosen academic discipline.

Beyond her academic purposes, Nilufer is an exemplary student who actively participates in classroom discussions and engages in collaborative activities with her peers. She has an innate ability to communicate effectively and express her thoughts with clarity and precision. Moreover, she demonstrates excellent interpersonal skills, which make her a valued member of any group or team she is a part of.

Nilufer's remarkable commitment to cross-cultural understanding is praiseworthy. Her genuine enthusiasm for American culture and history has driven her academic pursuit of studying English in the USA, with the primary aim of immersing herself in an English-speaking environment to gain a profound understanding of American life. This academic endeavor reflects her earnest dedication to expanding her knowledge and broadening her perspectives, making her an exceptional candidate for pursuing her educational goals in an international setting.

I am confident that Nilufer possesses the necessary qualities and determination to excel in the English course she is applying for. With her proactive approach to learning and her strong foundation in language skills, she will undoubtedly make a significant contribution to the academic community when she returns to Turkey. The knowledge and insights she gains during her studies in the USA will be invaluable in her future pursuits, allowing her to play an active role in fostering cultural exchange and promoting international cooperation back home. Nilufer's commitment to personal and academic growth will undoubtedly benefit her community and make a positive impact on her field of expertise in Turkey.

I wholeheartedly endorse Nilufer Dastan's application for the English course in the USA, firmly believing that she will be an exceptional asset to your esteemed institution. Her passion for language learning, academic dedication, and cultural curiosity makes her an ideal candidate for this program. Should you require any additional information or have any inquiries, please feel free to reach out to me at your convenience.

Associate Professor Emrah Gulay,
Department of Econometrics,
Dokuz Eylul University
Phone: (090) 5065054759
Email: emrah.gulay@deu.edu.tr